WINES : OFF THE BEATEN TRACK – FRANCE

France is world-renowned for excellent cuisine and very impressive wines. There are many high-profile, well-known wine producers in France, but, also, there are makers of wines, including full-bodied productions, who produce in smaller quantities, a good number of which are award-winning. I aimed, on this occasion, to locate wineries producing high-quality wines (hidden gems) that deserve recognition – very much so.

As always,

Enjoy!

Famille Sumeire rosé wines impress me. Château Coussin Sainte-Victoire and Cabaret Côtes de Provence are my choices from this producer. These versatile, smooth wines are chosen numerous times and enjoyed as pre dinner drinks, with main meals and are great for al fresco dining, too. www.sumeire.com
